

Exela is a leader in healthcare technologies and Aideo is a Leading AI Platform for Autonomous Coding in Healthcare

IRVING, Texas, July 22, 2024 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Exela Technologies, Inc. (“Exela” or “the Company”) (NASDAQ: XELA, XELAP), a leader in business processing automation (“BPA”) announces a strategic alliance with AIDEO Technologies (AI Medical Coding & Billing Automation Revenue Cycle Management - aideo-tech \(aideo-tech.com\)), a leading AI platform specializing in autonomous coding for healthcare. This collaboration is poised to revolutionize the medical billing landscape by enhancing efficiency and accuracy across the board. Exela’s strategic initiative incorporates generative AI across its products and services, complementing other AI-driven efforts.

PCH Global, Exela’s industry leading Healthcare platform, continues to expand its capabilities and grow its customer base by providing solutions for providers and payers. This strategic partnership will further enhance value proposition for PCH Global customers by providing feature-rich, leading-edge solutions.

"We are excited to bring this innovative AI technology to our customers as well as our PCH Global ecosystem to Aideo customers," said Suresh Yannamani, CEO of Exela Technologies BPA.

"Medical coding is the lynch pin of the healthcare revenue cycle," said Tim Jones, Chief Revenue Officer of Aideo Technologies. "The opportunity to integrate our capabilities both up and downstream with PCH Global is a win for providers seeking to lower costs of processing claims and obtaining payment."
